Astonishing About "Count" Gengler's Performances Here Last Spring.

By R. D. THOMAS.

John Gengler, the Hoboker rolled tenpin balls from the palm of his hand with as great effect as most bigpinners using the holes, in an exhibition following the A. B. C. A. tournament here last spring, spectators vere little snort of astonished.

Yet, according to Gengler, this is one of the most popular forms of rolling in Europe where, as a native of Germany, he at one time was considered the premier tenpin roller. Even in America, here and there in cities that boast large German populations, bowlers will be found who roll tenpin balls without wrist to direct the sixteen-pound sphere on its course down the runway, tiengler often rolls a better game in this manner than with the fingerholes. The "Count's" uncanny skill in spinning and hooking the ball is accomplished almost entirely with the use of also little finger which is stretched far to the left of the ball. As the sphere leaves his hand he crooks his little finger rapidly, giving the ball practically the same position that the ordinary bowler obtains by twisting the wrist slightly. wrist to direct the sixteen-pound sphere on its course down the runway. Gengler's style also differs from that the never takes a run and slide before delivering spins and howlers in that he never takes a run and slide before delivering spins and howlers in that he never takes a run and slide before delivering spins and letters from several others cities were read, including one from Waynesboro, Pa.

This city was represented by Harry Krauss and Peyton B. Fletcher; Baltimore, Manager Morrison, of the Regent alleys; Richmond, C. H. Cosby; Norfolk, J. Roan; Portsmouth, J. H. Neville, and Hagerstown by Peyton Nicely.

Some of the other cities expected to come into the organization are Martinsburg, Cumberland, Harrisonburg, and Staunton, Roan, of Norfolk, was appointed temporary president, and Krauss temporary secretary.

of American bowlers in that he never takes a run and slide before delivering the ball. Standing just back of the foul line, hetakes one long step, stretching his body far forward. The American practice of running with the ball would be regarded with amazement in Europe, he declares.

Europe, he declares.

Gengler hails from Luxemburg and has been in this country only two years. His most remarkable performance was in Brussels three years ago when he rolled thirty-four consecutive strikes, which is believed to be a world's record.

Have New Ball. Verily, it seems that the Washington bowler can never be satisfied. First he rolled the five-inch ball, but wanted larger scores and brought out the 54 inch sphere. This causing some confusion by having the 5-inch rolled at the same time the A. C. B. A. tried to correct matters by introducing the universal 4%-inch ball. This proved un-popular and the 5-inch was brought back, and now the Royal and Conti-nental teams, of the District League have back, and now the Royal and Continental teams, of the District League have obtained an entirely new one. It is a 5-inch ball, but is about three ounces heavier than the regulation sphere and ig made of a composition brick and fiber. Each team is in possession of three. They were obtained from a dealer in Cleveland, Ohlo.

So far the results gained with them have been generally above the ordinary, one bowler having rolled two scores recently of more than 160 with them. The ball appears to be especially efficient in working its way through to pins that ordinarily are difficult to hit because of the ball caroming to one side. Such breaks as the "basket" are made easier with it, and on a strike hit No. 5 pin, just behind the headpin, seldom is left standing, as is so often the case with the mineralite and lignum vitae.

Rolls to Reduce. Rolls to Reduce.

Mrs. John L. Vaeth, whose husband quite a bowler, also can roll duckpins a few, but hasn't been active on the alleys for several years. "Since I stopped rolling," says Mrs. Vaeth, "I have sained, oh, ever so many pounds, and I'm going to start rolling again soon to get rid of some of 'em. It's a good way to reduce."

Compete for Turkeys. Bowlers at the Southeast alleys are colling some exceptional scores in their efforts to get among the qualifying fifty for the roll-off Thanksgiving for six turkeys. The bowlers are given up until Thanksgiving to qualify, the fifty with the three best scores to be selected for the final competition.

Woman Champion Wins. Mrs. Jack Reilly, champion tenph powler of the country, has accumulated new honors by winning the champion ship of the Chicago Journal's headph

Big Scores Scarcer.

Big scores are becoming fewer. Several big sets were rolled every evening in the first part of the season, but 1,600 in the first part of the season, but 1,600 marks now attract considerable notice. Columbians, in the National Capital League, had the only 1,600 total of last night's rolling, with games of 624, 564, and 545, a set of 1,633, enough to take three from the National Capitals. Michaud, of the Columbians, was high.

Tenpin Prospects Bright. Encouragement ran high at the meet in Baltimore yesterday of tenpin rominents who are organizing the In terstate League to decide an individual champion. Representatives of Washington, Baltimore, Richmond, Nortolk Portsmouth, and Hagerstown were on Krauss temporary secretary.

It is planned to start the competition some time in the early spring in order not to interfere with the regular bowling season. An individual champion will be determined in each city, each to put up $100 for its franchise, which will partly defray the expenses of the city champions traveling from one town to another. All contestants will roll fifty games, high average in each city to determine its representative.
